Teaming up with FOCUS<sub>HLS</sub>

X-Test™ is proud to announce the recent team-up with Focus HLS - a professional team of experts in the field of Homeland Security with over 50 years of accumulated experience.

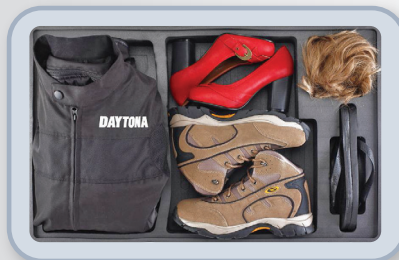

Focus HLS specializes in providing Quality Assurance Management services (QAM) for government and private security sectors. The company has developed an integrative model comprised of quantifiable T&R (Threats & Risks) assessments, audits and red teaming (covert testing of current security measures) which eventually creates a realistic picture of the security domains operation.

X-Test™ provides Red Team training aids – five (5) Aviation Security kits containing concealed simulated IEDs (Improvised Explosives Devices), for training security personnel – X-Ray and CT compatible, including instructional booklets.

X-Test™ simulants are used amongst red teams in government security organizations such as Israel Security Agency, TSA, the UK Home Office, CATSA (Canada), STAC (France), Amsterdam Airport Schiphol and more.

AVSEC004 – CONCEALED SIMULATED IED KIT FOR AVIATION SECURITY TRAINING

AVSEC002 – SIMULATED IEDS CONCEALED IN ARTICLES OF CLOTHING TRAINING KIT

AVSEC001 – SIMULATED IEDS CONCEALED IN ELECTRONIC DEVICES TRAINING KIT

X-Test™ in collaboration with Focus HLS enhances the utilization of the state of the art simulants provided by X-Test with the experience that Focus delivers in quality assurance management services. Utilizing these cooperative efforts and accumulated experience in the fields of security, chemistry and material sciences augments and increases the security of the industry and creates a hardened target able to better withstand risks and vulnerabilities.

X-Test™ now offers the comprehensive solution for testing, evaluating and improving the security at large scale sites, whether they are private or governmental.
